

Consultant Procurement

For over nineteen years, Morrison Low has consulted to local and state government and the financial services sector, and has achieved exceptional results. Now, many industries rely on our expertise. We are an Australasian management consulting firm, and have offices strategically located in Sydney, Auckland and Wellington. We are a values-driven business with an experienced and supportive team that thrive on delivering exceptional results across all facets of our clients' businesses.

With continued growth and success, we are now seeking an intermediate level consultant who is degree-qualified in business, engineering, law or equivalent to work on procurement, contract management and project delivery with our team of senior consulting staff. This will be across a range of service areas including infrastructure and term service contracts, with involvement from planning stages, developing requirements, contract development, tendering and then contract review.

Experience in diverse roles associated with procurement operations and supply chain requiring customer focus, problem solving and working in a team environment is highly appropriate. Knowledge of various standards (contracts) would be desirable. Equally, experience in procurement processes involving various market approach methodologies in public and private sectors would be highly desirable. You must be a natural team player with strong time management skills along with conceptual and analytical thinking. Contract and report writing skills along with managing projects are a prerequisite. Existing networks and client base are advantageous. Ultimately, you are a self-starter with outstanding sales and client relationship building skills coupled with a strong history of delivery.

We take pride in the fact that we have a workplace that encourages growth, flexibility and creativity, as well as a company culture that champions inclusion, diversity and overall employee well-being.

The successful applicant will be based in Sydney and will have a high degree of flexibility to travel and work across Australia and New Zealand.

In return, we offer a competitive salary, professional development and the opportunity to work within a supportive, friendly team of professionals in modern, open plan offices. Remuneration will be negotiated based on the successful candidate's experience, background and fit within our current business.

If this sounds like the opportunity you have been waiting for, please apply by sending your CV and cover letter explaining why you are the best candidate for the role to the Practice Manager s.parkinson@morrisonlow.com. Please note all applicants must have the legal right to work in Australia.

No agencies please.
