The opportunity

Our Senior Procurement Specialist will have experience in consulting to the state or local government sectors and have excellent relationship, communication and networking skills. You will also have a track record of problem solving and formulating high quality advice from your expertise in the procurement area. This will cover a range of service areas including infrastructure and term service contracts, with involvement from pre-planning, the planning stages, developing requirements, contract development, tendering and then contract review.

To be successful in this role you will:

- be degree qualified in a relevant field
- have experience in diverse roles associated with procurement in the public sector, state and/or local government
- have an extensive sector network or client base
- have a sound knowledge of procurement processes involving various market approach methodologies in both the public and private sectors
- be a natural team player with strong time management skills along with conceptual and analytical thinking
- have excellent contract and report writing skills along with experience managing projects

- be comfortable self-managing your work, juggling competing demands and deadlines, prioritising work efficiently with little direct supervision
- enjoy networking, meeting new people and building relationships
- want to grow your career.

Ultimately you are a self-starter with outstanding sales and client relationship building skills coupled with a strong history of delivery.

The position is Sydney-based but will involve work on projects for clients in a range of locations and potential associated domestic travel. Our projects are usually team-based, both short and long term and may involve both working in-house with our clients and from our offices.

Remuneration will be negotiated based on the successful candidate's experience, background and fit within our current business.

If this sounds like the opportunity you have been waiting for, please apply by sending your CV and cover letter, explaining why you are the best candidate for this position, to the Practice Manager - s.parkinson@morrisonlow.com.

Please note, all applicants must have the legal right to work in Australia.
