

Senior Consultant - Financial Advisory

About Us

Morrison Low is an employee-owned company, where our people and our clients directly benefit from the value that we create. With offices in Australia and New Zealand, we work in the local and state government sectors consulting and delivering wide-ranging projects which make a real difference for our clients.

At Morrison Low, we're not just financial consultants; we're partners and advisors to government, dedicated to helping them achieve fiscal stability and sustainability.

The opportunity

As a Morrison Low consultant, you'll have the opportunity to work with local councils and government stakeholders, providing the financial strategies and guidance they need to thrive.

We are looking for an experienced finance professional to join our finance and economics advisory team in New South Wales. Our work with typically includes long term financial planning, financial sustainability assessment, IPART special rate variation and other pricing determination applications, financial assessment and forecasting for service and operational reviews, business case and capital expenditure review development, and reviews of waste, water, sewer and developer contribution financial plans and pricing.

We provide growth and development opportunities to expand your capabilities in a dynamic and rewarding career as a financial consultant, offering training in skills to set you up for success.

You'll be part of a passionate and diverse team that values innovation, excellence, and continuous learning. Our culture of teamwork encourages sharing, growth, collaboration, and achievement. High performing teams have more fun while delivering awesome results for clients.

Wellbeing and job satisfaction is a priority for us, and we support the flexibility to work from both the Sydney office and from the comfort of your chosen location, within NSW, with regular trips to work alongside the rest of the team in Sydney.

Be part of a business that champions work-life balance, flexibility, and innovation.

About you

We are looking for an experienced and qualified finance professional that understands the unique challenges that local councils and government face.

You will have between 10-15 years post-graduate work experience with financial advisory, accounting, commercial and/or data analysis in your toolkit.

Most importantly you enjoy thinking outside the box. Be good at listening and communicating; and someone who has a strong client service focus and who prides themselves on coming up with workable, implementable solutions.

Make a difference! Join us in helping communities flourish and build a brighter future through financial consulting, at Morrison Low your career will have a lasting impact.

If this sounds like you, please apply via LinkedIn/Seek or to Emma at people@morrisonlow.com sending your CV and cover letter outlining your fit for this position.

Please note all applicants must be based in and have the legal right to work in Australia.

We are an equal opportunity employer, committed to creating a diverse and inclusive culture that respects your unique circumstances.

No agencies please.
