

Senior Consultant, Waste – Sydney

- Looking for your next challenge?
- 10+ years' experience in providing waste advice to the public sector?
- Keen to be part of a growing dynamic, fast-paced, flexible organisation committed to making a difference?

About us

Morrison Low are an Australasian management consulting firm. We have offices in Sydney, Auckland and Wellington. For over twenty years we have consulted to the public sector and achieved some exceptional results.

Our clients come to us for trusted advice on a wide range of issues. We are well known in local government as sector experts. Within the waste sector we are seen as the market leader, being involved in a wide range of projects involving feasibility studies, business cases, strategy and policy development, and procurement through to service delivery.

We are a values-driven business with a supportive team who thrive on delivering exceptional results across all facets of our client's businesses.

Our people are flexible, hardworking, and committed. We invest in our people. We take pride in the fact that we are a workplace that encourages growth, flexibility, and creativity, as well as a company culture that champions inclusion, diversity, and overall employee wellbeing.

The opportunity

We are looking for a senior consultant to join our waste team in Sydney.

You will work closely with our consultants and leaders from across the business. You will be part of a team that aims to help clients:

- achieve their potential
- design solutions that work
- deliver tangible results and outcomes for their customers.

The position is Sydney based but will involve work on projects for clients in a range of locations and potential associated domestic travel. Our projects are usually team-based, both short and long term, and may involve both working in-house with our clients and from our offices.

About you

You will be intuitive, intensely curious, and deeply interested in understanding how things work.

You will have experience in some, but not necessarily all the following: analysis, problem solving, financial modelling, policy or strategy development, business case writing and procurement.

You will enjoy working with people from a range of backgrounds and professional disciplines and will have excellent interpersonal skills.

To be successful in this role, you will:

- Be degree qualified with around 10 years' experience in solid waste, environmental management, or sustainability, and having had some experience working within the public sector or a consultancy environment.
- Be an excellent listener who will be trusted by clients to identify their needs and deliverables.
- Have superior written communication skills, and have experience delivering accurate and engaging written and visual content that is tailored to the audience, along with confidence in presenting these ideas to clients.
- Be comfortable self-managing your work, juggling competing demands and deadlines, and prioritising work efficiently.
- Enjoy networking, meeting new people and building relationships.
- Want to learn new skills and grow your career.

Remuneration will be negotiated based on the successful candidate's experience, background and fit within our current business.

If this sounds like the opportunity you have been waiting for, please apply by sending your CV and cover letter, explaining why you are the best candidate for this position, to the Practice Manager - s.parkinson@morrisonlow.com.

Please note all applicants must have the legal right to work in Australia.

No agencies please.
