About Us / Ko wai mātou

Morrison Low is an employee-owned company, we work in the local and central government sectors in Wellington, Auckland, and Sydney. We have a solid and proud track record of success in helping clients.

About the Role / Te Whiwhinga mahi

We are looking for a trained and experienced economic and policy professional to join our growing Central Government practice.

We don't expect you to be a full-on consultant on day one. We offer training in the skills to be successful. We work in teams. We like teams. Teams share, grow, collaborate, and achieve. Plus, high performing teams have more fun while delivering awesome results for clients.

We offer good salaries. We understand work-life balance. Our people have lives outside work. Many have young families, and we know what that means in terms of supporting families to do sport, manage after school activities and family life. We work hard, and we know when to knock off and fire up the BBQ.

About you / Ko wai koe

You will have experience and knowledge of New Zealand/Australian government and at least five years post graduate work experience. You will have modelling, policy, and economics in your toolkit, but your passion will be turning theory into good practice.

If you have advised Ministers or Boards directly, or have evaluated programme performance, even better.

But most importantly you will be someone who enjoys thinking outside the square. Someone who is good at listening; and someone who prides themselves on coming up with workable, implementable solutions.

If this sounds like you. If you like being at the cutting edge of policy and data. If you want to make a difference, and if you back yourself, please apply.

Remuneration will be negotiated based on the successful candidate's experience, background and fit within our current business.

If this sounds like the opportunity you have been waiting for, please apply via Seek or to c.daly@morrisonlow.com sending your CV and cover letter outlining your fit for this position.

Please note all applicants must have the legal right to work in New Zealand.

No agencies please.
