The Opportunity / Te Whiwhinga mahi

With continued growth and success, we are now seeking a senior management consultant based in our Auckland office to work on projects for clients across New Zealand. Our projects are usually team-based, both short and long term, and may involve working in-house with our clients, and from our offices, we also support work from home days.

You will work closely with our consultants and leaders from across the business as part of a team that aims to help clients:

- achieve their potential
- design solutions that work, and
- deliver tangible results and outcomes for their customers.

About You / Ko wai koe

You have initiative, are self-motivated, with the ability to quickly assimilate new learnings.

You enjoy working with people from a range of backgrounds and professional disciplines and have a strong client focus which builds and maintains strong relationships.

You have sound investment and decision-making skills along with experience in a range of fields such as organisational restructures, operational reviews, business improvement reviews/planning, business case writing, Section 17A reviews, financial modelling and commercial analysis, infrastructure planning and procurement.

To be successful in this role, you will:

- Have a relevant degree and approximately 10 years' experience.
- Have experience working within the public sector and/or a consultancy environment.
- Have financial literacy.
- Be an excellent listener who can become a trusted advisor.
- Have superior written communication skills, and experience delivering accurate and engaging written and visual content that is tailored to the audience.
- Be comfortable self-managing your work, juggling competing demands and deadlines, and prioritising work efficiently.
- Enjoy networking, meeting new people and building relationships with confidence presenting ideas to clients.
- Want to learn new skills and grow your career.
- Must have flexibility to travel.

Remuneration will be negotiated based on the successful candidate's experience, background and fit within our current business.

If this sounds like the opportunity you have been waiting for, please apply now by sending your CV and a cover letter outlining your fit for this position.

Please note all applicants must have the legal right to work in New Zealand.

No agencies please.
